

1 Table of Observations

During the exercise, you will be asked to select a letter from the alphabet. For that selected letter, prepare a Mike-Mike information report suited for the observations found in the following table. Use your best estimate.

If your letter is:	Your observation is:
A	Things were rattling on the shelves in my home. I noticed a door sway and hanging pictures moved a little bit.
B	My windows at home were rattling loudly.
C	I heard what sounded like a large heavy truck passing by outside.
D	Glasses fell over in my kitchen cabinets.
E	I had to hold on to a door frame to keep my balance.
F	I walked outside and saw that some bricks fell off the neighbor's chimney.
G	I was driving on U.S. Highway 101 and the overpass at Lawrence lost some concrete that fell into the road.
H	The floor and walls shook, but nothing else.
I	Some books fell off a shelf.
J	One of my bookshelves fell over.
K	The new building construction across the street collapsed.
L	My wall mirror almost fell off the wall.
M	A lot of water in the swimming pool washed up over the sides.
N	The front porch of my neighbor's house is now slanted and tilted.
O	A bunch of car alarms have gone off in the neighborhood, but not much else.
P	I thought I was going to loose my heirloom porcelain, but it stayed on the shelf just fine.
Q	The open door to the garage slammed shut.
R	I fell over and couldn't get up for awhile until the shaking stopped.
S	I was driving and a portion of the pedestrian walking bridge in Cupertino over RT 280 collapsed.
T	The bed shook for a little bit, but that was it.
U	Some small items fell off the bookshelf in my home office.
V	The TV fell off its stand and broke its screen.
W	I was up at Steven's Creek reservoir and after the shaking stopped, I noticed a bunch of dirt had fallen off the face. There appears what might be a large crack forming.
X	The hanging kitchen lights sure swayed a lot with this one, nothing else. A short but bumpy ride.
Y	My stereo speakers and stands fell over and broke.
Z	My old dog went and hid under the kitchen table because the wooden fence in the back yard fell over and made a terrible noise, along with all the shaking.
